Rudraksha Suggestion Report

This Rudraksha suggestion report aims to help you choose the most suitable Rudraksha that you can wear to have the blessings of Lord Shiva. This report considers the Nakshatra that you were born in to suggest the most appropriate Rudraksha for you. Wearing the recommended Rudraksha shall shield you against the negative energies and help retain positivity in your life.

Rudraksha & its importance

Rudraksha beads are produced by the 'Rudraksha Tree' scientifically called Elaeocarpus. The tree grows at a certain altitude in the mountains, especially the Himalayas - the home to Lord Shiva. The seeds are known to have very unique vibrations that aid the spiritual and physical growth of the wearer. In Hindu scriptures, it is mentioned that the one who wears Rudraksha is blessed with the virtues of Dharma, Artha, Kama, and Moksha. Wearing Rudraksha, in fact, allows the wearer to connect with Lord Shiva and his divine energies.

It is a belief that the wearer of Rudraksha not only pleases Lord Shiva but also Goddess Durga, Lord Indra, Lord Brahma, Lord Vishnu, Lord Ganesh, Lord Kartikeya, Lord Aditya, and many other deities. If you want to condemn your sins or faults and purify your life, a Rudraksha is a good tool to begin with. It is said that a person's sins burn down to ashes by merely looking at a Rudraksha. On the other hand, wearing a Rudraksha helps in the fulfilment of the desires of the wearer.

The number of faces a Rudraksha has varies from 1-Mukhi to 21-Mukhi, all of which are used for different purposes. Henceforth, it is not advisable to buy any Rudraksha of your choice, wear it, and expect it to work. In fact, wearing the wrong Rudraksha can disturb a native's life by exposing him to wrong energies or simply overpowering a certain planet or leaving it strengthless. Therefore, it is very important that you get a consultation from an astrologer to astrologically decide the most suitable Rudraksha for yourself.

Astrotalk Kundli Report

Shani Sade Sati: Rising Phase

With Saturn transiting in the 12th house of your Kundli from the Moon, the movement marks the beginning of the Shani Sade Sati phase for you. During this period, you need to be cautious of instances that can lead to financial losses, accidents, relationship woes, bad health and even deprivation. During the Shani Sade Sati phase, you need to rein your actions and words, especially at your workplace, or else you will have to face challenges in adjusting to the professional scenario. On the domestic front, family and finance-related tensions may prevail. If trying to get married, Saturn's nature of dealy may overpower that desire of yours. In such instances, being patient will come to your emotional aid. Consider the Shani Sade Sati phase for working hard towards your dreams, as Shani rewards you based on your karma and hard work. You are advised not to take high risks in business matters in this period.

Shani Sade Sati: Peak Phase

As you tread into the peak phase of Shani Sade Sati, things might get a bit tough for you hereafter. Yet, acknowledging the tough as a challenge is advised. Saturn transiting over the natal Moon from here may complicate certain prevalent health woes. Your immune system may show unprecedented weakness. Hence, do follow a proper diet and an active lifestyle. A teen or working adult may suffer from depression, unknown fear or phobia, especially of losing their source of income during this phase. You also need to be cautious about keeping your societal image intact during this phase. On the bright side, the peak Shani Sade Sati period will incline you towards your spiritual side. You will feel more peaceful if you surrender to God. Take spiritual tours during this period with your spouse.

Shani Sade Sati: Setting Phase

The setting period of Shani's Sade Sati has begun for you with Saturn moving into the 2nd house from the natal Moon. The period marks financial and domestic woes but less severe in form. However, professional decisions should be made after careful consultation with expert stakeholders. Also, you need to keep your hands tight when it comes to spending money, as expenses might soar for you in this phase of Shani Sade Sati. Sudden financial losses and fear of theft are also a possibility. A lot of attention needs to be diverted towards family and your own self, as if you don't do so, small problems will turn into bigger problems. There will be some delay in getting the results you desire, but good things will surely happen for you. If possible, give up any bad habits such as smoking and drinking to keep Saturn happy.
